KSPPA is a non-profit organization that is funded by donations and members' monthly dues. All donations and your race entry fee are tax deductible and receipts are available on request. Every year Chapter 9 Pikeville Post has the family resource officer in each elementary school from our five counties (Martin, Magoffin, Johnson, Floyd and Pike) choose two children that are in need of an extra special Christmas. We have them bussed in and feed them breakfast, then they SHOP WITH A TROOPER at Wal-Mart where they are given $100.00 to spend. They are then served a lunch and sent home with a complete Christmas dinner for their families. So ACTIVATE YOUR EMERGENCY EQUIPMENT as we Run Signal 9 to raise money for

AWARDS

Chip timing, awards will be given to the top three over-all males and females. 1st, 2nd and 3rd in each age division.
